DID YOU KNOW?

Despite being largely treatable through early detection, breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths in women worldwide.¹

Cervical cancer is the easiest woman cancer to prevent with regular screening and testing. Despite this, more women die in Latin America from cervical cancer than from pregnancy-related causes.²

¹ NCD Alliance, Non-Communicable Diseases: A priority for Women’s Health and Development, p. 11.
² Idem.